I would go with Aug. 11th, using that 90 day time frame. It could be sooner but there's no way to anticipate.

What are you guys estimating right now for rough start date?

When we start passing out the flyers to businesses I know the question will come up.

Thanks.

Hi Aaron,

The selection of a contractor is a 90 day process, undertaken by BOE. That clock started on May 11th, when the bid due date passed.

Morning Tim,

In regards to the My Fig construction start date do you have an update?

Also, has the City chosen a team for construction off the bids that came in?

Thanks,
Aaron
